Total College, in partnership with SafeWork NSW, is offering subsidised quad bike training to eligible farmers and farm workers.

Get quad safe with a one-day practical course to help farmers and farm workers apply safety measures around the use of quad bikes on farms. The course is mapped to the national unit of competency AHCMOM212 - Operate quad bikes and is tailored to the experience level of attendees.

Training will be available at various locations across NSW.

To be eligible you need to be:

- a person operating an agricultural business registered in NSW or
- someone working for a person operating an agricultural business registered in NSW

Visit www.tocal.nsw.edu.au/courses/nsw-quad-bike-safety-improvement-program to see if you are eligible, to find more information, and to register.

Cost: $100 (if eligible - full price normally $410)
